Training for new businesses

Start your own business

A three hour informal seminar aimed at providing an overview of a business plan. This training module will take you through the advantages and disadvantages of self-employment; helping you to consider your own personal skills and qualities. You will also have the opportunity to learn about further business support networks which may be available to you as you start your business.

Starting your own business will probably be one of the most important decisions you will make, therefore it is important to ensure that it is the right step for you.

Aims of module 1

- outline the advantages and disadvantages of self-employment
 - identify reasons for small business failure
 - consider your motivation for starting a business
 - provide a framework for analysing your personal skills
 - describe your networks of support
 - provide information on sources of finance for a business
 - provide information on the legal aspects of starting a business
